Thursday evening at the home of exRepresentative Edmond Walker and Mrs. Walker at Wakefield, their daughter, Miss Bessie Rodman Walker, became the bride of Robert Gladstone Thackeray of Westerly, teller at the Washington Trust company, and captain of the Fifth cempany, coast artillery corps. The wedding ceremony was performed in the parlor, where the decorations consisted of rhododendrons and yellow chrysanthemums. The bride wore white satin and a bridal vell caught up with white gardenias. She carried bride roses. A luncheon and reception followed. The wedding cake has been made eighteen
